Register now for the 25th Annual Governor's EEO Conference

Tuesday, Oct. 18 at Kentucky International Convention Center Louisville, Kentucky

The Personnel Cabinet's Office of Diversity & Equality is excited to invite all interested employees to the 25th Annual Equal Employment Opportunity Conference.

This year's event is loaded with outstanding speakers who will address such topics as gender and generational communication, the changing demographics of the Commonwealth, how to properly conduct investigations, the veterans hiring preference, methods for conflict resolution and, of course, EEO legal updates.

An awards luncheon will feature the presentation of this year's Charles W. Anderson Laureate Award as well as messages from top leaders in state government on the Commonwealth's commitment to equality in the workplace.

Attendance at this year's conference will be capped at 250, so please do not hesitate to register.
