

Last Chance for Expo 2011!

This year's final Participant Education Expo is only days away. If you haven't attended one of these exciting, information-packed events spotlighting your state-sponsored defined contribution plans, please join us!

Who: Kentucky Deferred Compensation (KDC)

What: Participant Education Expo

When: Tuesday, Oct. 25, 2011

Downtown Marriott in Louisville

1-4 p.m.

Three detailed workshops regarding state sponsored 401 (k) and 457 plans will be presented, and a full contingent of KDC staff will be present to serve you. A KRS representative will also be there to answer your retirement questions.

Pre-registration is not required. State employees can take up to two hours paid time off (plus reasonable travel time) to attend the expo. So talk with your supervisor soon and come to the Louisville Expo 2011. A Certificate of Attendance will be provided for you to give to your supervisor upon your return to work.
