The LivingWell site was shut down.
Security upgrades abound.
It’s back up and running;
The upgrades are stunning.
Come join us and then stick around!

YEP—WE’RE SO EXCITED THE SITE IS BACK UP THAT WE WROTE YOU A POEM!
As the limerick above says, KEHPlivingwell.com was shut down so we could perform some security enhancements. And now it’s back online and ready for you!

CHECK YOUR MAILBOX (YES, YOUR PHYSICAL MAILBOX) TO GAIN ACCESS TO THE SITE
We’ve sent you a letter that outlines the steps you’ll take to access the relaunched KEHPlivingwell.com site.

Please follow those steps and keep that letter for your records.

FULFILL YOUR LIVINGWELL PROMISE BY THE EXTENDED DEADLINE OF September 14
Because the site was unavailable for a few weeks, we’ve extended the LivingWell Promise deadline to give you some extra time to earn your premium discount for 2021.

You can visit KEHPlivingwell.com after you receive your letter to complete the online Health Assessment to fulfill your Promise. Or you can complete a biometric screening, since some provider offices are now open. Click here to get started.
